The annual camp reinforces the basic fundamentals of football while catering to the offensive skill positions of running back, tight end, wide receiver and quarterback.
