Senior cornerback Parry Nickerson grabs his 13th career interception for the Green Wave football team during the first quarter of the tilt with Florida International University in Miami on Saturday. Up next: The Wave invites fans to pack the stands for Yulman Fest, a full-blown festival on the uptown campus as No. 16-ranked Bulls of the University of South Florida make the trip to New Orleans. The day's activities will include pregame tailgating with great prizes, entertainment and fireworks, and culminates with Tulane hosting one of the biggest games in the stadium's four-year history.
