

Old with the new

March 08, 2018 12:15 PM Paula Burch-Celentano
pburch@tulane.edu

Workers begin plastering the exterior of the addition to Mussafer Hall on the uptown campus. The original building, built in 1902 as Richardson Dormitory, has undergone significant plaster and masonry work to highlight the structure's architectural details.