

Five Stars Headed for Hall of Fame

June 30, 2010 11:45 AM Tulane athletics staff
newwave@tulane.edu

Three of the Green Wave's top student-athletes from the last 10 years ? football standout Mewelde Moore, tennis star Michael Kogan and women's basketball player Teana McKiver ? highlight the Tulane Athletics Hall of Fame Class of 2010.

Running back Mewelde Moore was the first Tulane player to garner more than 2,000 rushing and 1,000 receiving yards in his career. (Photo from Tulane athletics)

Rick Dickson, Tulane director of athletics, announced members of the 2010 class, who will be inducted during homecoming festivities on Oct. 8 in the Lavin-Bernick Center on the uptown campus.

The 2010 class also includes the late Jimi Flowers, who was on the swimming team, and Gayle Letulle, who will receive the Billy Slatten Award.

The inductees also will be honored at halftime of the Tulane homecoming game against Army at the Louisiana Superdome on Oct. 9.

Moore was a do-it-all running back for the Green Wave from 2000â€“03. He rewrote the Conference USA and Tulane record books during his stellar career, becoming the second player in NCAA history to record 4,000 rushing and 2,000 receiving yards. He played pro football for the Minnesota Vikings and currently is with the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Kogan was a five-time All-American in tennis after earning the honor in both singles and doubles. He was selected as the Conference USA Men's Tennis Player of the Decade in 2005.

McKiver played at Tulane from 2000â€“03 and helped the team to three straight trips to the NCAA Tournament. She also had a successful pro career.

Flowers was a member of the Green Wave men's swim team from 1979â€“83. He was a four-time Metro Conference champion in the 200-meter breaststroke. The national team manager and head coach for U.S. Paralympics Swimming, he died in 2009.

Letulle has served as statistician for football and basketball games at Tulane for 44 years. He also has been the New Orleans Saints' official statistician since the team's inception.

For Hall of Fame banquet reservations, e-mail Sue Bower or call 504-865-5513.