Students and crawfish fans pack the Lavin-Bernick Center quad for the 10th annual Crawfest celebration on Saturday (April 16) on the Tulane University uptown campus.

The student-run event saw tons (literally) of mudbugs boiled and served to hungry festival goers.

Members of The Funky Dawgs brass band lead a second line past the LBC.

Crawfish fans also enjoyed the standard accoutrements that go with a proper crawfish boil.
