

PaintFest America brings bright colors to Tulane hospitals

July 27, 2016 3:15 PM Carolyn Scofield
cscofiel@tulane.edu
504-247-1443

Prospective Picassos and Warhol wannabes put their artistic skills to work during PaintFest America, a national initiative to bring more art into hospitals around the country. Patients, families and staff members of Tulane Cancer Center and Tulane Lakeside Hospital for Women & Children painted pre-designed murals that will be displayed on hospital walls. The event was hosted by the Foundation for Hospital Art in partnership with Tulane Arts in Medicine.