

Progress pending

December 14, 2016 1:00 PM Paula Burch-Celentano

pburch@tulane.edu

5042892107

Staff members with the Office of Planning, Design and Construction hang a banner on the gate surrounding Mussafer Hall. Formerly housing the School of Social Work, the hall, built in 1902 in the Dutch Renaissance style, was the first dormitory on the uptown campus. Following renovations and an addition, the Academic Advising Center, Career Services and the Success Center will call Mussafer Hall home.