Members of the Class of 2017 used a wide variety of materials — ranging from battery-powered lights to multicolored quinoa — to transform their plain mortarboards into memorable keepsakes. To see their handiwork, check out the nine boards in the infographic below, designed by Tulane University graphic designer Kim Rainey, for a preview of some of the unique designs that will be on display during the Tulane University Unified Commencement Ceremony.
Does your mortarboard measure up?

You can live in any city in America, but New Orleans is the only city that lives in you.
