

Devotional detour

March 01, 2017 2:00 PM Paula Burch-Celentano
pburch@tulane.edu

On her way to work, Ashley Fazende stops to receive ashes-to-go from the Rev. Steven M. Roberts of Christ Church Cathedral on Ash Wednesday morning (Mar. 1). The drive-by service is a welcome convenience for people who are unable to attend mass because of conflicting schedules. Ash Wednesday is the first day of Lent, a season of prayer, sacrifice and repentance for Christians around the world.