

Action packed

April 25, 2018 2:30 PM Paula Burch-Celentano
pburch@tulane.edu

McAlister Place teems with activity on any given day of the week.

Victoria Diamond, right, a peer health educator with Tulane Campus Health, watches as Jack McGee plays MythBusters: Sleep Edition outside the Lavin-Bernick Center. The game tests players' knowledge of daily activities that promote or impede healthy sleeping habits. As exam week approaches, look out for other events sponsored by The Well.

Baptist Collegiate Ministry interns Kendall Morrow, left, and Sarah Read enjoy downtime on McAlister Place. The ministry offers free coffee and lemonade twice a week on the boulevard.

From left, Lily Tandler, Jordan Lawrence, Miranda Rubin and Lila Pell, members of Jewish a cappella group NJBeats, give an impromptu concert to promote their final concert of the year.