

River gate

May 08, 2018 2:45 PM Paula Burch-Celentano
pburch@tulane.edu

Located on the eastbank of the Mississippi River just north of the Crescent City Connection, the Tulane River and Coastal Center, left, managed by the ByWater Institute, is home to active research laboratories, staging areas for field operations and other efforts that support coastal resilience and protection, and awareness of local community needs through environmental education and outreach.