

Tulane football hosts Navy in home opener with limited number of fans

September 20, 2020 12:30 PM Tulane Today staff
today@tulane.edu

A limited number of the Tulane Green Wave's family members cheered the team on in the stands of Yulman Stadium on Saturday, Sept. 19, for this season's home opener. (Photo by Sally Asher)

The Green Wave led 24-0 at the half, but lost by a field goal in the final seconds of the game. (Photo by Sally Asher)

Family members of linebacker Sam Bruchhaus (#59) intensely watch from the stands. (Photo by Sally Asher)

Christie Howard cheers on her brother, quarterback Keon Howard (#9). (Photo by Sally Asher)

Christine Daniels shows her Green Wave spirit with colorful olive and blue hair as she cheers on and records her son, tight end Christian Daniels (#14). (Photo by Sally Asher)

Frank Williams watches his son, Dorian (linebacker), while wearing a mask with his son's number on it. (Photo by Sally Asher)

Fans bought personalized cutouts to be displayed in the stands. (Photo by Sally Asher)