

Move-In 2022

August 16, 2022 9:00 AM Tulane Today staff
today@tulane.edu

It's the time of year again when Tulane students, new and returning, head to the uptown campus to move into their residence halls, get settled and connect with their fellow classmates before the start of the fall semester. Move-In will take place for first-year and new students through Wednesday, Aug. 17, and returning students will move in from Thursday, Aug. 18, through Saturday, Aug. 20. This year's move-in continues with a streamlined process, facilitated by Tulane's Housing and Residence Life. Students can access the Fall Move-In Guide here.

(Photos by Rusty Costanza and Paula Burch-Celentano)

McAlister Way is busy as new students move into their residence halls. (Photo by Rusty Costanza)

A parent and student use a bin from Housing and Residence Life to move belongings to a residence hall on move-in day. (Photo by Rusty Costanza)

A group of Wave Leaders with New Student Orientation cheer on and welcome students as they make their way to their residence halls. (Photo by Rusty Costanza)

Shipped boxes are stacked in a hallway in Sharp Residence Hall. (Photo by Paula Burch-Celentano)

A student with their belongings is shuttled to their residence hall by a Move-In volunteer. (Photo by Rusty Costanza)

First-year student Anna Qamarudeen enters her room in Monroe Hall for the first time with her parents Mo and Sharon. Qamarudeen is a first-year student majoring in neuroscience and English. (Photo by Paula Burch-Celentano)

Second-year student Tarick Ahmad, left, helps his brother, first-year student Ahmad Ahmad, right, move into Ahmad's room at Monroe Hall. (Photo by Rusty Costanza)

Talia Deutsch and her mother Jocelyn share a laugh as they move boxes and prepare to unpack her belongings in Sharp Residence Hall. (Photo by Paula Burch-Celentano)

At Sharp Residence Hall, move-in day is an extended-family affair for first-year student Vakaya Lee, center, surrounded by her parents, aunts and uncle. (Photo by Paula Burch-Celentano)

Kyshondra Sawyer, left, and Ricky Nelson with Sodexo flatten shipping boxes behind Monroe Hall on the first day of move-in. (Photo by Paula Burch-Celentano)