Gerard Baldwin, an assistant supervisor with the campus grounds crew, tends the garden in the Mary Victoria Mills Weinmann Patio Theater in the Dixon Performing Arts Center. Dedicated in 1984, the patio honors the 60th anniversary of Weinmann's 1923 graduation from Newcomb College, where she earned a bachelor's degree in music. A popular gathering spot, the patio was also used for holding in-person musical labs during the pandemic. (Photo by Paula Burch-Celentano)
