

Green Wave opens football season with a win over UMass

September 06, 2022 10:45 AM Tulane Today staff
today@tulane.edu

The Tulane Green Wave opened its football season with a win over the University of Massachusetts on Saturday, Sept. 3. The Green Wave cruised to a 42-10 victory over the Minutemen in Yulman Stadium. Read more about the football game at Tulane Athletics. The next game is against Alcorn State University at 6 p.m. on Saturday, Sept. 10, in Yulman Stadium on Tulane's uptown campus. Photos by Parker Waters.

The Tulane Green Wave takes the field in Yulman Stadium for the season opener football game against University of Massachusetts on Saturday, Sept. 3.

Junior running back Tyjae Spears carries the ball, leaving a UMass player behind. Spears scored three touchdowns in the game.

The Yulman crowd yells for the Green Wave.

Head Football Coach Willie Fritz (right) celebrates with the team.

The Tulane University Marching Band plays in the stands during the Tulane-UMass game.