

City Council honors Tulane football team

February 02, 2023 3:45 PM Tulane Today
today@tulane.edu

The New Orleans City Council honored the Cotton Bowl Champion Tulane Football team with a proclamation during its meeting on Thursday, Feb. 2. Coming back from a difficult 2021 season that was disrupted by Hurricane Ida, the Green Wave rode to victory this season, clenching historic wins in the American Athletic Conference Championship and the Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic. The team, led by Head Coach Willie Fritz, finished its season ranked No. 9 in the nation.

(Photos by Paula Burch-Celentano)

Tulane football player Jha'Quan Jackson (center) addresses the City Council members, surrounded by fellow teammates (back row from left) Lawrence Keys III, Noah Taliancich, Josh Remetich, (seated far left) Ben Weiner Director of Athletics Troy Dannen, (seated right) President Michael A. Fitts and (far right) Head Coach Willie Fritz.

Football player Josh Remetich and Coach Fritz (center) meet and shake hands with City Council member JP Morrell (left).

Players (from left) Noah Taliancich, Josh Remetich, Lance Robinson, Lawrence Keys III (in rear), Angelo Anderson hold the signed proclamation.