

Green Wave football team is welcomed as a special guest at Louisiana Capitol

April 13, 2023 11:15 AM Tulane Today staff
today@tulane.edu

On April 11, the Tulane Green Wave football team was invited to Baton Rouge to be recognized at the Louisiana Capitol and for an audience with Gov. John Bel Edwards, as a special honor after the team's historic Cotton Bowl win in January.

Head Coach Willie Fritz (center right) and members of the Green Wave football team meet with Gov. John Bel Edwards (center left) in Baton Rouge. Also in attendance was Tulane alumna La. Rep. Aimee Freeman (second from left). (Photo by Parker Peltier)

Coach Fritz (left) thanks the members of the Louisiana House of Representatives for recognizing Tulane Football and presents Speaker of the House Clay Schexnayder (right) with a commemorative Cotton Bowl football. (Photo by Parker Peltier)