Tulane will welcome Pro Football Hall of Famer Terry Bradshaw to campus on Wednesday, Feb. 5, to celebrate Terry Bradshaw Day, and the Tulane community is invited to attend.

The commemorative day, proclaimed by the New Orleans City Council, honors Bradshaw, who was born and raised in Louisiana. He won the first of his four Super Bowl victories during Super Bowl IX, which was hosted at Tulane Stadium 50 years ago.

The event will be broadcast on the Super Bowl LIX pregame show. The event will take place from 10 to 10:30 a.m. on the Berger Family Lawn, and the first 100 students to arrive will receive free merch from Fox.
