Green Wave football fans will gather today (Feb. 3) at the James W. Wilson Jr. Center for the athletics department's annual National Signing Day Party, when the 2010 signees will be announced by head coach Bob Toledo.

Festivities are slated to begin at 6 p.m., and the event is free and open to the public.

Toledo and his staff will be on hand to discuss the newest members to the team. Fans will have the opportunity to interact with each of the coaches and learn first-hand information on each of the new signees.

The event will feature free food and drinks, as well as highlight video clips of the 2010 class and player information.

During the day, Tulane fans can follow the entire signing day process online. Tulane athletics will feature a blog highlighting the national letter-of-intent received from each of the Green Wave's signees, the happenings in the coaches' war room, a slideshow of action photos and information on each signee. Fans also can watch Toledo's press conference announcing the program's latest signing class at 2 p.m.

Also scheduled during the morning hours today are regular radio updates on WIST-AM 690, the official flagship station for Tulane athletics. Each update will feature interviews with the football coaching staff and official letters received.

In addition, Tulane athletics will announce 2010 football season ticket plans as well as renewal information.
