Training Together

sports cycling team members from Tulane and Louisiana State universities join up for a training ride. The teams will be competing in a race in Austin, Texas, later this month. The year-old Tulane Cycling Club is getting ready for its first competitive season, says Randall Legeai, club adviser who is a staff member in the Office of Government Affairs.