

Sweetheart Serenade

February 15, 2011 12:30 PM Photos by Claire Barry
newwave@tulane.edu

Marjorie Cowen, wife of Tulane President Scott Cowen, had a sweet surprise on Valentine's Day — a serenade and roses from members of the Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity at Tulane. Scott Cowen was in on the secret, arranging to have her at Gibson Hall for the special presentation.

Members of the fraternity, waiting on the Gibson Hall steps, surprise Marjorie Cowen as she steps out the door with Scott Cowen.

A Sig Ep fraternity member presents her with a framed certificate as an honorary sweetheart of the fraternity.

A Sig Ep admirer hands red roses to Marjorie Cowen to add to the special occasion as the fraternity brothers sing to her.

Among those delivering a valentine rose is a fraternity member sporting his Green Wave baseball cap.

The fraternity members are all smiles with their new sweetheart.