Students in the Newcomb Dance Company displayed both grace and power at “An Evening of Dance” on Sunday (Feb. 20) in Dixon Hall. Part of the program featured original choreography by faculty members from the theater and dance department. In addition, the dancers performed works choreographed by modern dance legend Alwin Nikolais and staged by Alberto del Saz, co-director of the Nikolais-Louis Foundation, as part of the Alwin Nikolais Centennial Celebration.
