

Fun Before Finals

April 26, 2011 12:15 PM Photos by Sally Asher
sasher@tulane.edu

Before buckling down to study for final exams, students took some well-earned time off on April 20 at a block party on McAlister Place. The Residence Hall Association threw the party as classes ended for the spring semester, treating students to free cotton candy, sno-balls and ice-your-own cupcakes, with plenty of jumping fun on the inflatables and twirling Hula-Hoops.

