

Photos: DJs Make Music Happen

January 01, 2010 12:00 AM

Click to view larger photo with caption.

Senior Elisabeth Morgan spins music for her listeners at WTUL-FM, the student-operated radio station on the uptown campus. (Photos by Tricia Travis)

Searching the station's extensive music library, senior Ben Zucker prepares for his stint as volunteer disc jockey. The progressive music station uses DJs from across the Tulane and New Orleans community.

Volunteers such as Zucker make the music happen around the clock at the station, which broadcasts at 91.5 FM from the Lavin-Bernick Center.