

Young Stars Take on the 1920s

July 11, 2011 3:00 AM New Wave staff
newwave@tulane.edu

A cast of 55 children entertained audiences with their singing and acting in Tulane Little Lyric Theatre's production of Thoroughly Modern Millie Jr. on June 23â€“25. The 1922-era musical was staged at the Dixon Performing Arts Center Annex on the uptown campus.

Eleanor Bernstein directed the production and Jennifer Marks handled the choreography. Both are recent graduates from the Tulane musical theater program. (Photos by Paula Burch-Celentano)

