In a mid-day game on Friday (Nov. 18), 1,600 kids from 16 local elementary and middle schools crowded into Avron B. Fogelman Arena in the Devlin Fieldhouse to cheer the men's basketball team to its third win of the season over the University of Maryland-Eastern Shore.

Long lines to get into Avron B. Fogelman Arena in the Devlin Fieldhouse aren't bothering this fan from KIPP McDonogh 15 Elementary School.

Students from Lafayette Elementary cheer for the Green Wave as the team cruises to a 73-52 win over the UMES Hawks.

Holy Name of Jesus students yell for some swag being thrown out by the Shockwave dancers.

A packed house was on hand to watch the basketball team win their third game in a row.
