Music by De Indian Cigars inspires a dance outdoors as the Belgian jazz band entertains from the Gorson Porch at the Lavin-Bernick Center.

Although they hail from Belgium, members of De Indian Cigars play New Orleans-style jazz music.

Ashley Schaff and Adam Ratzlaff enjoy a dance during the noon concert.

Horns lead the way as the band plays for students taking a break between classes.

“The groove is unmistakably the most important component of this music â?| from the hot south of the States,” according to the band's website.
