

Community forum to discuss new Tulane stadium

June 04, 2012 2:30 AM New Wave staff
newwave@tulane.edu

The first of three forums to discuss the new on-campus stadium at Tulane University will be held on Wednesday (June 6) at 6 p.m. in room 201 of the Richardson Memorial building on the Tulane uptown campus.

Design and usage issues are the specific topics up for discussion at the first forum on the new Tulane stadium that will be held on Wednesday (June 6). (Illustration from Gould Evans Architects)

The university will provide shuttles from the Rosen Lot to Gibson Circle. Shuttles will run from 5:30â€“8 p.m.

Design and usage issues are the specific topics up for discussion at the first forum.

Tulane and neighborhood representatives jointly selected the firm GBBN architects that will facilitate all three community forums. A nationally respected architectural firm, GBBN is experienced in organizing and moderating community discussions about projects like Tulane Stadium.

GBBN principal Gregory Otis, assisted by senior associate Ron Kull, will lead the discussion and solicit input during the 90-minute forum. A transcript will be provided and posted on tulanestadium.com shortly after the meeting.

The next forum will be held on Monday, June 18, followed by the final forum on Monday, July 11. The tentative location for both sessions is 201 Richardson Memorial Building.