

College admission tips, live from the president

July 25, 2012 10:45 AM New Wave staff
newwave@tulane.edu

Parents and students who are perplexed by the college admission process can tune in to Sirius XM Satellite Radio on Friday (July 27) for a live discussion with Tulane University President Scott Cowen and two other experts.

Preparations for college is the topic for Friday's (July 27) "Doctor Radio Reports" program on Sirius XM Channel 81, with Tulane President Scott Cowen on the experts' panel. (Photo by Paula Burch-Celentano)

It's on the schedule for "Doctor Radio Reports," hosted by former NBC News anchor Perri Peltz, on Sirius XM Channel 81 from 10 until 11 a.m. on Friday, with rebroadcasts on Saturday (July 28) at 6 p.m. and Sunday (July 29) at 8 p.m.

Friday's listeners can call in to have their questions answered by Cowen and panel members Matthew Bardin, founder of Veritas Tutors, and Dr. Glenn Saxe, the Arnold Simon Professor and chair in child and adolescent psychiatry at the New York University Langone Medical Center.

The program will discuss how to deal with the stresses and strains of the college application process, said Beth Ameen, producer of "Doctor Radio Reports," including tips for parents, common pitfalls to avoid, misconceptions about acceptances, standard testing and finding an institute of higher education that fits best with a student's needs.

Listeners who have a Sirius or XM subscription can tune in on Sirius or XM channel 81. Those who do not have a subscription can sign up online for a free 30-day pass for Sirius and listen online.