Tulane University president-elect Michael A. Fitts is all smiles on Tuesday (Feb. 4) at a luncheon in Gibson Hall on the uptown campus, before the event announcing his selection for the top post at Tulane.

President-elect Michael A. Fitts is interviewed for the first time on the Tulane University uptown campus in Gibson Hall.

Tulane President Scott Cowen and incoming Tulane University president Michael A. Fitts share a warm moment as they walk across the uptown campus before the press announcement on Tuesday (Feb. 4).

"This is the Presidential Jacket of Tulane University," says Tulane President Scott Cowen, as he bequeaths a well-worn green sports coat to Michael A. Fitts, who will become the 15th president of Tulane University on July 1.
