Finn Phayer, playing music man Professor Harold Hill, performs a dance number with Anita Dongieux as Gracie Shinn. A cast of talented kids presented a production of the 1957 Broadway musical The Music Man for Tulane Little Lyric Theatre last week at the Dixon Performing Arts Center stage on the Tulane University uptown campus.

The Mayor (Adam Poche) reprimands Tommy Diljas (Cullen Lee) as Harold Hill (Finn Phayer) holds him still.

The cast performs "The Wells Fargo Wagon."

The Pick-A-Little Ladies (Naomi Gibb, Abby Collins, Maggie Roach and Claire Brunet, from left) confront Marian the Librarian (Anna Duong, center).

Charlie Cowell (Quinn Farnet) tries to warn Marian (Anna Duong) of the truth about Harold Hill.

Marian (Anna Duong) sings "Till There Was You" by composer Meredith Wilson as Harold (Finn Phayer) looks on.

The entire Music Man cast appears on stage in the last scene of the play.
