Green Wave pride may be at an all-time high as the debut of Yulman Stadium is just days away. The Tulane University uptown campus is dressed up for the occasion and Tulane fans are getting ready for the first football game on campus in more than 30 years. Georgia Tech is heading to the stadium's first football matchup with the Green Wave on Saturday (Sept. 6). View the slideshow by Sally Asher, with music by the Tulane University Marching Band. Roll Wave!
