

Troopers to deliver holiday toys to kids at Tulane University School of Medicine

December 15, 2015 11:00 AM Carolyn Scofield

cscofiel@tulane.edu

504-247-1443

WHAT: Members of Louisiana State Police Troop B will deliver toys and holiday cheer to patients of the Department of Pediatrics at Tulane University School of Medicine. This is the tenth year that state police have generously sponsored the department's annual holiday party by providing gifts and refreshments to children in need.

WHO: Nearly 100 patients and siblings will be on hand along with dozens of state troopers and medical school staff members. Santa and Mrs. Claus will arrive with a special state police motorcycle escort.

WHEN: 4 – 6:00 p.m., Wednesday, Dec.16

WHERE: Tidewater Bld. 1440 Canal St., 1st Floor Diboll Gallery

MORE: Surrounded by the flashing lights and loud sirens of his state police motorcade, Santa and Mrs. Claus will make an impressive and fun entrance for all the children to enjoy. The Department of Pediatrics will also present the state troopers with a special gift for all the years they have sponsored this party.