

Tulane Guide to Mardi Gras 2011

February 10, 2009 9:45 AM Tulane University

Carnival season is upon us. Here's a list of things you need to know for Mardi Gras 2011, including parade schedules, safety tips, rules for guests of Tulane students, and special events going on for Tulanians around the country. Laissez les bon temps rouler!

Mardi Gras/Spring Break is Mar. 6-13
NO CLASSES

Parade Schedule

Mardi Gras Guest Registration Info

by Housing and Residence Life

Mardi Gras Safety Information

by Housing and Residence Life

Campus Police - Uptown

(504) 865-5200

Campus Police - Downtown

(504) 988-5555

Tulane Affiliated Events

The Tulane University Marching Band is featured in some of the biggest and most beloved Mardi Gras parades. They bring the Tulane faithful to their feet and energize the entire community with the Green Wave spirit! Watch for them at Mardi

Gras in 2011 in the following parades:

February 27, Alla

March 4, Hermes

March 6, Bacchus

March 8, Rex

The Mardi Gras Collection is an online exhibition of classic carnival float designs, ball invitations, photographs and more dating from the 1800s to modern times.

2011 Tulane Mardi Gras Invitational National Sports Law Tournament

Mardi Gras parties for Tulane alumni around the country

Send e-mail to pr@tulane.edu to suggest a link