Who: 192 graduating students of the Tulane University School of Medicine

What: Tulane University School of Medicine's Match Day Ceremony

When: Friday, March 15. Doors open at 10 a.m.; program begins at 11 a.m.

Where: River City Ballroom, Mardi Gras World, 1380 Port of New Orleans Place

More: Graduating Tulane Medical School students, joined by families and friends, learn where they will complete their residencies. The National Medical Resident Matching Program pairs graduating medical students throughout the United States with academic medical institutions each year at this time. The students will spend the next three to six years in specialized training as they continue on the road to becoming fully licensed and practicing physicians.
