A 16-person V.I.P. suite to a New Orleans Saints away game, an all-expenses paid road trip with the Green Wave football team, Major League Baseball tickets, and a weeklong vacation at the Mayan Palace Acapulco golf resort are just some of the items currently available at the Dads & Grads Auction, which will benefit Tulane University's student-athletes. Online bidding is underway at <http://riptide.me/Dc> and ends on June 16.

The Dads & Grads Auction features additional sports-themed items such as high-end events packages, luxury trips, autographed photos and jerseys of well-known athletes, and golf outings and dinners with Green Wave coaches. All proceeds from the auction will support student-athletes at Tulane.
