

Presidential inauguration: Watch the highlights here

March 21, 2016 1:00 PM New Wave staff
newwave@tulane.edu

President Michael A. Fitts has been a familiar face in Gibson Hall for more than a year and a half, but now he's really official: On Thursday (March 17) Fitts was inaugurated as the 15th president of Tulane University in McAlister Auditorium on the uptown campus. The ceremony included over 100 delegates from other universities, a musical tribute by Dr. Michael White and the Original Liberty Jazz Band, speakers, gifts and an address during which Fitts outlined his vision for the university.

Watch the inauguration highlights above.