

Bash for the Bard

April 25, 2016 1:00 PM Photo by Arielle Pentes
newwave@tulane.edu

The grand marshal leads the Wendell Brunious Brass Band through the streets of Stratford-upon-Avon, England during a jazz funeral commemorating the 400th anniversary of William Shakespeare's death. Brunious and his band accompanied representatives from the Tulane School of Liberal Arts as part of the Tulane Jazz Funeral Project organized by Mike Kuczynski, chair of the English Department.