Teresa Cole, professor and chair of the Newcomb Art Department, works on a new series called "Rejects." "Like a jazz musician would riff on a melody," Cole said, "I create a lot of different plates and play around with the order, with no plan for the outcome. Each one is unique." Two of Cole's pieces are on display in the Contemporary Arts Center exhibit "A Building With a View: Experiments in Anarchitecture," Aug. 6 to Oct. 1, 2016.
