

Gridiron ghosts

September 08, 2016 2:00 PM Photo from the Tulane University Archives
newwave@tulane.edu

“Brother” Brown, captain of the 1924 Green Wave football team, far left, runs the ball as Peggy Flournoy and Gene Bergeret throw blocks on members of the Mississippi College Choctaws during Tulane’s second game of the season. The Wave proved victorious in the matchup, topping the Choctaws 32-7. Tulane went 8-1 in the 1924 season, the only loss coming against Mississippi A&M.