As Tulane football prepares to take on the University of Louisiana at Lafayette Ragin' Cajuns on Saturday (Sept.24), take a look at the program cover art from the Green Wave's 1929 matchup against Southwestern Louisiana Institute of Liberal and Technical Learning, which became ULL in 1999. According to the hand-written note at the bottom, the Wave blanked Southwestern 60-0 in Tulane Stadium 87 years ago. Tulane fans hope this weekend's tilt ends in similar fashion when the Cajuns come to town.
