ANTISEMITISM AWARENESS WEEK

OCT. 23RD - OCT. 27TH

October 23rd (Mon), 10:30 am – 11:30 am
Holocaust Memory, and Teaching the Human Story
Melissa Mott - ADL, Director of Antisemitism, Holocaust and Genocide Education
Location: Virtual
This session aims to provide participants with a fundamental understanding of how the Holocaust occurred, Nazi antisemitic ideology, and the manner in which we commemorate the past. We will examine individual stories and the testimony of survivors. Our focus will center on the significance of memorializing the Holocaust, the impactful voices of individuals, and the 'micro-histories' embedded in our own past, highlighting their central role in shaping historical narratives.
Register for this virtual session here.
Sponsored by the Office of Equity, Diversity and Inclusion and the Carolyn Barber-Pierre Center for Intercultural Life

October 24th (Tues) 7:00 pm
Movie Night on the Berger Family Lawn
Sponsored by Hillel

October 25th (Wed), 4:00 pm – 6:00 pm
Jewish Identity and Intersectionality Panel
Panelists: Ari Ofengenden, Golan Moskowitz, Marilyn Miller, Joel Dinerstein, and Jason Gaines
Moderator: Ilana Horwitz
Location: Woldenberg Art Center, Room 205,
Join us for a vibrant exploration of Jewish identity and the immense diversity that exists within Jewish communities related to race/ethnicity, sexuality, and other social identities and lived experiences.
Sponsored by The Stuart and Suzanne Grant Center for the Jewish American Experience

October 26th (Thurs), 12:30 pm - 2:00 pm
Antisemitism Today
Presenters: Lindsay Baach Friedmann (Regional Director, ADL South Central) and Darryl Coulon (Associate Education Director, ADL Southern Division)
Location: Hillel, 912 Broadway, upstairs in the Mintz II and Zoom option (register here)
Experts from the Anti-Defamation League (ADL) will provide an interactive session on the historical background of antisemitism, how antisemitism manifests today, proximate local examples and images of antisemitism, and will provide time and reflection for how to take personal action to combat antisemitism, as individuals and as a school community.
Sponsored by the Office of Equity, Diversity and Inclusion and the Carolyn Barber-Pierre Center for Intercultural Life

October 27th (Fri), 10:30 am - 12:30 pm
Bagel Brunch at Hillel
Location: Hillel, 912 Broadway Street
Sponsored by Hillel

In collaboration with The Office of Equity, Diversity and Inclusion, The Carolyn Barber Pierre Center for Intercultural Life, Tulane Hillel & The Stuart and Suzanne Grant Center for the Jewish American Experience